BETTY PETERSON BORNEY BERGANTINE

Evening shadows make me blue
When each weary day is through,
How I long to be with you,
My happiness.
Ev'ry day I reminisce,
Dreaming of your tender kiss,
Always thinking how I miss
My happiness.
A million years it seems
Have gone by since we shared our dreams,
But I'll hold you again,
There'll be no blue memories then.
Whether skies are gray or blue,
Any place on earth will do,
Just as long as I'm with you.
My happiness.

STAGGER LEE

HAROLD LOGAN LLOYD PRICE

The night was clear and the moon was yellow,
And the leaves came tumbling down.

I was standing on the corner
When I heard my bull dog bark,
He was barking at the two men who were gambling in the dark.
It was Stagger Lee and Billy,
Two men who gamble late,
Stagger Lee threw seven, Billy swore that he threw eight.

Stagger Lee told Billy, "I can't let you go with that,
You have won all my money and my brand new Stetson hat."
Stagger Lee went home, and he got his forty four.
Said, "I'm going to the barroom just to pay that debt I owe."

Stagger Lee went to the barroom, and he stood across the barroom door,
Said, "Now nobody move," and he pulled his forty four.
Stagger Lee, cried Billy, "Oh please don't take my life,
I got three little children, and a very sickly wife."

Stagger Lee shot Billy, oh, he shot that poor boy so bad,
Till the bullet came through Billy, and it broke the bartender's glass
Look out now, go, go, Stagger Lee.
Go, go, Stagger Lee, go, go, Stagger
Lee.
Go, go, Stagger Lee, go, go, Stagger
Lee.
Go, go, Stagger Lee, go, go, Stagger
Lee.
Go, go!

(When Your Heart's On Fire) SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES

OTTO HARBACH JEROME KERN

They asked me how I knew
My true love was true.
I of course replied,
Something here inside,
Cannot be denied.

They said someday you'll find,
All who love are blind,
When your heart's on fire,
You must realize smoke gets in your eyes.

So I chaffed them and I gayly laughed
To think they could doubt my love.
Yet today my love has flown away
I am without my love.

Now laughing friends deride
Tears I cannot hide,
So I smile and say,
"When a lovely flame dies,
Smoke gets in your eyes."

LOVE, LOOK AWAY

OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN II
RICHARD RODGERS

Then say you "make the world go
'round",
They say you "conquer all".
Love, won't you please stop conq'ring me?

Take someone your size, I'm small;
Too small to fight against the odds,
Too tired to chase romance,
Knowing I need one man alone,
And knowing I have no chance.

Love, look away!
Love, look away from me.
Fly, when you pass my door,
Fly and get lost at sea.
Call it a day.
Love, let us say we're through.
No good are you for me,
No good am I for you,
Wanting you so, I try too much.
After you go, I cry too much.
Love, look away.
Lonely though I may be,
Leave me and set me free,
Look away, look away, look away from me.

LUTHER DIXON ALLYSON R. KHENT

Sixteen candles make a lovely sight
But not as bright as your eyes tonight
Blow out the candles make your wish come true

For I'll be wishing that you love me too

You're only sixteen but you're my teenage queen

You're the prettiest, loveliest girl
I've ever seen

Sixteen candles in my heart will glow
Forever and ever for I love you so.

GOTTA TRAVEL ON

PAUL CLAYTON

I've laid around and played around
this old town too long,

Summer's almost gone, yes, winter's coming on,

I've laid around and played around
this old town too long,

And I feel like I've gotta travel on.
Poppa writes to Johnny, but Johnny

can't come home,
Johnny can't come home, no Johnny
can't come home;

Poppa writes to Johnny, but Johnny
can't come home

'Cause he's been on the chain gang too long.

High sheriff and police riding after me,
Riding after me, yea, coming after me;

High sheriff and police riding after me,
And I feel like I've gotta travel on.

Want to see my honey, want to see her
bad,

Want to see her bad, oh, want to see her bad,

Want to see my honey, want to see her
bad,

She's the best gal this poor boy ever had.

THE DIARY

NEIL SEDAKA HOWARD GREENFIELD

How I'd like to look

Into that little book

The one that has the lock and key

And know the boy that you care for

The boy who's in your diary.

When it's late at night

What is the name you write?

Oh what I'd give if I could see

Am I the boy that you care for

The boy who's in your diary.

Do you recall and make note of all

The little things you say and do

The name you under line

I'm hoping that it's mine.

Darling I'm so in love with you

Please don't leave me blue

Make all my dreams come true

You know how much you mean to me

Say I'm the boy that you care for

In The Hit Parader Spotlight

The Nu-Tornados

In our HIT PARADER Spotlight for this issue, we have the Nu Tornadoes — five Philadelphians with their hit version of "Philadelphia U.S.A." These five fellows went to high school together and have been singing as a group ever since. The boys are Phil Dale, Tommy Dell, Mike Perna, Louie Mann and Eddie Dono. Dono is the leader of the quintet, which can be considered a professional group for only about a year now.

The Nu Tornadoes have appeared in night clubs from St. Paul to Boston and were recently approached by Al Scalise and Bill Borelli to record "Philadelphia, U.S.A." They did, and soon after the disc was snapped up by Carlton Records. In no time at all this record caught hold of the music lovers and has soared higher and higher into the best seller spots — in an incredibly short time!

Although The Nu Tornadoes have only been on the recording scene for a very short time, they have been seen nationally via the Dick Clark Show. On Wednesday, December 3rd, they made another appearance on this show, and on January 3rd, they made one more.

Philadelphia is their home as well as the 'stamping grounds' of Dick Clark — so naturally they made their television singing debut on American Bandstand.

Hi There Music Fans:

We've got a truly great issue of HIT PARADER lined up for you this month and we mean — truly great! In this star-studded issue we're featuring on four full pages, stories and pictures of America's most loved and admired disc jockey, TV emcee and TV Bandstand host, the fabulous Dick Clark. Brother, that was a pen full, but we mean what we say when we say, America's most loved deejay etc. Dick Clark has achieved more fame as a personality deejay and his popularity far exceeds that of any other man in show business we know!

This issue of HIT PARADER is simply jam packed with stories of stars, both old and new. The new for instance is composer, singer Neil Sedaka, coming your way with his little book — "The Diary." We're betting you'd like to be in his little book after you read his fascinating story.

DICK CLARK

"Philadelphia U.S.A." goes along with this issue very well. So do The Nu Tornadoes who make with the sounds on their Carlton recording. Philadelphia is their home along with Mr. Personality, Dick Clark. Look for The Nu Tornadoes in our HIT PARADER Spotlight.

Something old and something new is featured with A Hit, A Miss And Four Knights. The "hit" is the record "O Falling Star" done by the Four Knights who have been around for quite some time. Something new is the versatile "miss," Miss Jody Cameron, the writer of the song.

Someone that can't be termed as old but simply a veteran, is Jimmie Rodgers, who has a hit every time. The Key To His Success is in the "Material" — only partially though, as you all know — Jimmie is the greatest!

Three comparative newcomers on the record scene, guys on ABC Paramount, Paul Anka, George Hamilton IV and Johnny Nash, bring you the "Teen Commandments" and the story behind the record.

THE TEEN COMMANDMENTS

1. Stop and think before you drink.
2. Don't let your parents down; they brought you up.
3. Be humble enough to obey. You will be giving orders yourself, some day.
4. At the first moment turn away from unclean thinking—at the first moment.
5. Don't show off driving. If you want to race go to Indianapolis.
6. Choose a date who would make a good mate.
7. Go to church faithfully. The Creator gives you the week; Give him back an hour.
8. Choose your companions carefully. You are what they are.
9. Avoid following the crowd. Be an engine—not a caboose.
10. Or even better—keep the original Ten Commandments.

YOU ARE BEAUTIFUL

RICHARD RODGERS

Along the Hwangno River where young men walk and dream,
A flower boat with singing girls came drifting down the stream.
I saw the face of only one come drifting down the stream.

You are beautiful, small and shy.
You are the girl whose eyes met mine
just as your boat sailed by.
This I know of you, nothing more,
You are the girl whose eyes met mine
passing the river shore.
You are the girl whose laugh I heard silver and soft and bright;
Soft as the fall of lotus leaves brushing the air of night.
While your flower boat sailed away,
Gently your eyes looked back on mine,
Clearly you heard me say:
"You are the girl I will love some day."

NEVER BEFORE

NORMAN GIMBEL MOOSE CHARLAP Never before have I ever glowed with such a glare,
Spun 'round in my chair,
A mile of smile with miles to spare.

Never before, Girl Scout's honor,
Have I been this gay,
Gay as a daisy patch in May.
Feel so swell—I'll yell it, yowee!
Is this thrill familiar?
N, O, no, no!
Never, not once, have I ever hopped around for joy,

Like some trick wound up toy,
Shakes and shivers for a boy, it's true.
Never before, only after I met you.

CHARLIE RICH
I just thought you'd like to know,
Since you've made your plans to go,
It's gonna hurt me so, to see you go.
But I hope you find another love,
And he'll be good to you,
But still and yet I can't forget,
The things we used to do.

I just thought I'd tell you this,
I've loved you since that first sweet
kiss,
It's gonna hurt to miss your tender
kiss,
But I hope you get to do the things,
You want to do.
But still and yet I can't forget,
The happiness we knew.

I just thought you'd like to know,
How much you hurt my pride.
I just thought you'd like to know,
How much my heart has cried, over you.

But darlin' you could never see,
The misery you've caused for me,
So I will tell you so,
'Cause I just thought that you'd like to know.

TREASURE ISLAND

JULIUS DIXON PHIL MEDLEY
I found my heaven here at last,
A paradise just made for two.
We'll have a future and a past,
Where dreams are real and love is true.

Treasure island, Treasure island
In her arms, in her arms, in her arms,
With her charms, with her charms,
with her charms.
Pleasure island, pleasure island,
That's where I am when she holds me
tight

No wonder I'm so happy lately,
No wonder I'm no longer blue.
I found a place to take my baby,
A place where lover's dreams come true.

Treasure island, Treasure island,
In her arms, in her arms, in her arms,
With her charms, with her charms,
with her charms.
Pleasured island, pleasure island
That's where I am when she holds me
tight.

ILLUSTRATOR

To help fill the nationwide need for new artists today, an Art Talent Hunt is being conducted in your area right now.

Artists are needed in every branch of commercial art—advertising illustration and layout, poster work, television art, fashion art, magazine and cover illustration, cartooning, book illustration, greeting card design, and other fields.

Over $10,000,000,000 is being spent this year for advertising alone—much of that for art. You can see why new talent is needed in the commercial art field today. Openings in art have increased about 50 percent in the last five years, according to a large employment agency. In every part of the country, there's a growing need for new art talent.

EARNINGS ARE UP. With a scarcity of artists today, men and women in commercial art are being more and more highly paid for their work. Even beginners in the field. Many commercial artists are now earning from $150 a week to over $50,000 a year. Some, including women, earn as much as $3,500 for a single illustration.

Do you like to draw? If you do, you may have the talent that's needed for success in commercial art. Here's the first thing to do. Find out if you have the necessary talent. You can, now—without cost or obligation.

TAKE TALENT TEST AT HOME. This Art Talent Test is being contributed, free, by a well known art school to help fill the nationwide need for new artists. It's a simple test, yet it will tell whether you have natural talent. You take the test by yourself, then mail it back. Professional artists examine and grade it—and if your test shows talent, you will get skilled counsel and guidance about a career in art.

Looking Into NEIL SEDAKA'S
"Diary"

Undoubtedly, if Neil Sedaka kept any sort of a diary, and we were to have an opportunity to look into the pages of that diary, we would find written there details pertaining to much of the effort that the young star put into practice and hard work before rising to the star position he is now holding.

Neil is the sensational new young RCA Victor singing star who spent most of his 19 years studying the piano and composition — intending to be a classical concert artist. Although he never took a singing lesson in his life, his unique and unequalled singing style undoubtedly is a combination of God-given voice plus musical savvy.

From the beginning, Brooklyn-born Neil Sedaka had his parents with him all the way. His grandmother on his mother's side, a concert pianist, had studied under famous Walter Damrosch, and Neil's father, a taxi driver, worked hard to support his son's ambitions to follow in his grandmother's footsteps.

Meanwhile, Neil's gifts as a composer of pop music were already recognized. He wrote the class night show for his senior class at Lincoln High School in Brooklyn, and later penned the hit song "Stupid Cupid," with lyrics by a fellow classmate, Howard Greenfield.

Neil was — and is — too busy to have time for any hobbies outside of music. In a family where money was scarce, Neil taught piano, played with a band as singer pianist, and worked on his vacations as music director in summer camps. His devotion to music paid off in other ways, too, for in 1956 the great Arthur Rubinstein selected Neil to play on WQZR's "Musical Talent In Our Schools" program. That same year Lincoln High School gave him the coveted "Music Award" on his graduation, and Juilliard awarded him a two-year piano scholarship. He still studies piano at Juilliard with Adle Marcus, who taught Cy Coleman, the great Jazz pianist.

If Neil had any hobbies at all, it was song writing and jam sessions. Neil likes people, and there were always "kids dropping in every night" to make music or just to listen.

With lyricist Howard Greenfield Neil had two of his songs recorded, "Stupid Cupid" and "Fallin'," and suddenly found his songwriting hobby had turned into his profession! Al Nevins of "Three Suns" fame, who has been with RCA Victor for many years as recording artist, arranger, and conductor, and Don Kirshner heard a demo record made by Neil. Immediately recognizing his outstanding talent, they rushed him over to RCA Victor's Steve Sholes, head of Popular Artists and Repertoire. Steve, who discovered Elvis Presley, recognized the tremendous teen-age appeal of Neil and signed him to an exclusive RCA Victor recording contract.

IT'S JUST ABOUT TIME

J. CLEMENT

Baby it's just about time I told you,
I'm all through with you,
But just about the time I start to tell you,
I start feelin' blue.

And just about then I lose my nerve,
And wait another day or two.
'Cause just about the time I think it's over,
I start missin' you.

It's just about time I had my say,
And told you a thing or two.
It's just about time I paid you back,
For treatin' me like you do.

But just about time I get some nerve,
I can't seem to carry it through.
'Cause just about then an empty feelin',
Reminds me I miss you.

It's just about time I let you know,
I've had my fill of you.
But just about the time I think about goin',
I start missin' you.

I'd like to go find another love that'll never be untrue.
But just about the time I think about
leavin',
I start missin' you.

RED RIVER ROSE

TOMMIE CONNOR JOHNNIE REINE

Marching along to my Red River Rose,
Waiting for me where the Red River flows,
Soon when the big, yellow moon starts to glow,
I'll be embracing my Red River Rose.

As I march down the trail with my face to the west,
My thoughts fly away to the girl I love best.
For there where the mountains reach up to the blue,
My love promised me she'd be faithful and true.

The bugles were sounding when we kissed goodbye,
She smiled, but I knew she was ready to cry,
Take care dear she whispered,
although you must go,
Be brave and remember that I love you so.

She gave me a locket that I'll always wear,
Inside was a curl from her bright golden hair,
And when I was lonely for comfort and cheer,
I'd open that locket and know she was near.

Goodbye baby, bye bye
Goodbye baby, bye bye
I'm going away

You were wrong, pretty baby, bye bye
Oh, so wrong, pretty baby, bye bye
Yes, so wrong, pretty baby, bye bye
Please don't you cry, oh, oh,

Goodbye baby, baby, bye bye
Goodbye baby, baby, bye bye
Goodbye baby, baby, bye bye
I'm gonna leave you now

SONG FROM SOME CAME RUNNING

SAMMY CAHN JAMES VAN HEUSEN

To love and be loved,
That's what life's all about,
Keep the stars comin' out.
What makes a sad heart sing, the birds take wing?

To love and be loved,
That's what living is for,
Makes me want you the more, the more we cling.

Let others race to the moon
Through time and space to the moon.
My goal is greater than this,
To reach your lips, to share your kiss.
To stay in your arms is the dream I pursue,

To be sheltered and safe from the storm,
To be cozy and ever so warm
And for always to love and be loved by you.

FALLIN'

NEIL SEDAKA HOWARD GREENFIELD

I got a feelin' I'm a-fallin' like a star up in the blue
Like I was fallin' off Niagra in a paddle boat canoe
I got a feelin' I'm a-fallin' and it's all because of you

Like I was walkin' on a tight rope Swingin' in the breeze though I try to keep my balance
I just weaken in the knees
I got a feelin' I'm a-fallin' won't you help me please

Like a leaf clings to a branch
Like a rock slide avalanche
Like the rain on a stormy day
Never thought I'd fall this way
I thought that love could never touch
me

I was ridin' high then my ivory tower toppled
And I tumbled from the sky
I got a feelin' I'm a-fallin'
And you're the reason why.

A HIT PARADER REPORT ON "LASTING" TALENT

Through the years many vocal groups have come on the scene with recording hits and an extremely favorable reaction — only to find time elapse — and with the passing of time so passed their popularity. There have been but a handful of such attractions with enough talent, determination and know-how to make the top grade and to stay there, never descending to a lower rank.

When one speaks of "harmony," thoughts automatically turn to the ability of the fabulous Ames Brothers and Mills Brothers. No other vocal teams have so constantly been in demand and rated foremost amongst both the adult and the teen populace. Whether it be a record, TV, movies or in person, both these brother-acts are without equal. Certain other acts have carved a notch in the show-business realm over recent years. The Four Lads will definitely be around for many years to come (they already have eight years of stardom behind them) as will The Four Aces (they've got ten years of stardom to their credit). Such star attractions as The Four Coins, The Esquires, The Diamonds, The Four Voices, The Four Preps, The Rover Boys, etc., have all had their hits and are now striving to attain a permanent place in the heart of the public. And, don't fool yourself one bit 'cause what these fellows are trying to do takes hard work and a determination that is almost unbelievable. They must dedicate themselves to their work, and they can never falter — not for one second in the class of recordings they turn out. Yes, it's work, work, work and still more work.

And now, continuing on with the theme of our story — "They'll Be Around," HIT PARADER stretches its neck a little in giving a report and making a prediction about a new vocal group destined to be around for just about as long as they want. We've been watching the progress of the fabulous Music Men since they first bowed into show biz — that was two years ago — only then they were known as The Bachelors.

Slowly but surly this spirited unit began to make a name for themselves as both a recording and in-person attraction, having already headlined the bill at such top night spots as The Town House, The Copa, The Macombo, The Shell House, etc. — all of this being quite an amazing feat for four youngsters barely passed the twenty year mark in life. "Class" is their by-word and it was this class that told the story as they won on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Show — in fact, it was this "class" that brought about their name change from The Bachelors to The Music Men. Their agency, General Artists Corporation, felt that The Music Men would be a longer-lasting name, and could lend more prestige to their careers.

Kenny, Sandy, Freddie and Charlie, the four boys who make up The Music Men, have fought off many obstacles during the past two years — and now we know of a way for you, the many thousands of HIT PARADER readers to make things just a little bit easier for them; helping them to reach the goal they so rightly deserve. The Music Men have a new record on the market. It's called "Blue Bird" coupled with "Santa Cruz." As you know many records by comparatively new artists are pushed aside in favor of the already established stars. But if everyone of you would just take a post card and write a short note to your favorite d.j., they would have to play the new record released on The Bigtop label, a record that could very easily become a hit with the proper amount of exposure. When your request is answered and you hear "Blue Bird" or "Santa Cruz," you'll see how quickly you'll want to buy a copy for your collection. So let's all team up, join hands, and see if we can help boost The Music Men all the way to the top — your post card can do the trick. Also the boys themselves would like to hear from you and to correspond with you; so why not write to The Music Men P.O. Box 267, New Haven, Connecticut.

Help make them stars and they'll prove they deserve your help — and they'll be around for many years to come.

THAT OLD BLACK MAGIC

JOHNNY MERCER HAROLD ARLEN

That old black magic has me in its spell
 That old black magic that you weave so well
 Those icy fingers up and down my spine
 The same old witchcraft when your eyes meet mine
 The same old tingle that I feel inside
 And then that elevator starts its ride
 And down and down I go, 'round and 'round I go
 Life a leaf that's caught in the tide
 I should stay away but what can I do
 I hear your name and I'm aflame,
 Aflame with such a burning desire
 That only your kiss can put out the fire
 For you're the lover I have waited for
 The mate that fate had me created for
 And ev'ry time your lips meet mine
 Darling down and down I go,
 'Round and 'round I go in a spin,
 Loving the spin I'm in Under that old black magic called love!

PLEDGING MY LOVE

F. WASHINGTON D. ROBEY

Forever my darling, my love will be true
 Always and forever, I'll love just you
 Just promise me darling
 Your love in return
 Make this fire in my soul dear, forever burn
 My heart's at your command dear
 To keep love and to hold
 Making you happy is my desire dear
 Keeping you is my goal.

I'll forever love you, the rest of my days

I'll never part from you,
 And your loving ways
 My heart's at your command dear
 To keep love and to hold
 Making you happy is my desire dear

MY REVERIE

LARRY CLINTON

Our love is a dream, but in my reverie
 I can see that this love was meant for me
 Only a poor fool never schooled in the whirlpool
 Of romance could be so cruel as you are to me
 My dreams are as worthless as tin to me
 Without you life will never begin to be
 So love me as I love you in my reverie
 Make my dream a reality let's dispense with formality
 Come to me in my reverie.

WITH

LOUIS PRIMA & KEELY SMITH

"Making With The Magic" are Keely Smith, the dark-eyed, Irish Indian, and wild, swingin', jumpin' hubby Louis Prima. Louis and Keely, in the short time they have come out with their new rendition of "That Old Black Magic," have skyrocketed their way into the hearts of the public. This Capitol recording has climbed the best seller charts in leaps and bounds. "That Old Black Magic" is on its way into becoming America's No. 1 pop tune.

Exotic, brunette beauty Keely, chanteuse wife of Louis, is also featured on her own with Capitol, in addition to chanting with her famous husband and combo. Louis has, over two decades, been a noted trumpet-vocal-leader luminary in show business.

For several years now, in night clubs, Keely has been creating a sensation with her dead-pan expression. At the Sahara Hotel lounge in Las Vegas she has also been co-billed with her hubby Prima and combo.

In October of 1957, Keely drew raves on her first TV performance for Dean Martin via the NBC network. In conjunction with this show, Capitol released her inimitable version of "Autumn Leaves," which proved to be a winner for her.

Keely was born March 9, 19—, in Norfolk, Virginia. Since she was a tiny tot she has been singing, first with kiddie programs and then with local bands.

Louis was born in New Orleans. His musical studies were focused first on violin, then trumpet, and soon he found himself demanded at school affairs. During his teens, he took off for New York and opened at the memorable Famous Door jazz rendezvous on 52nd Street at the beginning of the Swing Era. He clicked instantly with his jumpin' little group and later opened his own Famous Door nitery in Hollywood. This lasted but a short time; for he preferred working with a smaller group and he returned to his original number.

Keely was long a Prima fan and president of his fan club in Norfolk, Virginia, up until several years ago, when she was invited to sing with him. It was her brother who arranged her to audition with him during a date in Virginia. The rest is plain to see — they fell in love and married. They now have two young children and maintain a permanent residence in Covington, Louisiana, when not working in clubs.

Their home is a fairly large farm with a full-size private racetrack and a nine-hole golf course.

During November, Keely appeared with Dinah Shore and at the plush Macambo night club in Hollywood, along with hubby Prima. They broke all records and returned in September for a return engagement.

In the near future a filmed TV series is being prepared for them. This marvelous husband and wife team are the most — watch for them, they'll be coming your way with more hits and personal appearances in the near future.

(All Of A Sudden) MY HEART SINGS

HAROLD ROME JAMBLAN HERPIN

It comes from out the blue,
The sudden thought of you,
Filling my heart up,
And thrilling me through.

All of a sudden my heart sings,
When I remember little things,
The way you dance and hold me
tight,

The way you kiss and say goodnight,
The crazy things we say and do,
The fun it is to be with you,
The magic thrill that's in your touch,
Oh, darling, I love you so much.
The secret way you press my hand,
To let me know you understand,
The wind and rain upon your face,
The breathless world of your embrace,
Your little laugh and half surprise,
The starlight gleaming in your eyes,
Rememb'ring all those little things,
All of a sudden my heart sings.

It comes from out the blue,
The sudden thought of you,
Filling my heart up,
And thrilling me through.

All of a sudden my heart sings,
When I remember little things,
Your voice upon the telephone,
The little laugh that's all your own,
The way a smile lights up your eyes,
The way you look up in surprise,
The magic thrill that's in your touch,
Oh, darling, I love you so much.
The funny way you hold your head,
The crazy things you've often said,
The way your hair won't stay in place,
The wind and rain upon your face,
The way you hold my hand at shows,
The way you wrinkle up your nose,
Rememb'ring all those little things,
All of a sudden my heart sings.

ED TOWNSEND

The Story Behind The Hit

Many times over, the record-buying public comes to wonder as to the "whereabouts" and "whenabouts" of a particular hit recording on the current market. That is why we, of HIT PARADER Magazine, decided to get in on the inside track and bring you such data pertaining to one of the finest, new ballads on wax today — namely "Getting By Without You," recently recorded by Capitol Record's Mr. Dynamic, Ed Townsend.

When we received the record to review, the wonderful sounds that came forth astounded us — and so we immediately called Hill and Range Music Publishing and made an appointment with the writers of the song, who in turn set us a meeting with Ed Townsend. This meeting was set for three o'clock on a Wednesday and of course we anticipated a wonderful afternoon.

Our first question was — just where did the song come from? Benny Benjamin co-writer of the song, along with Sol Marcus, was the first to answer. "Ever since Sol and I first heard Ed's recording of "For Your Love," we believed that his style of presentation was suited perfectly to our style of writing, (by the way, Solly and Benny are responsible for such hits as "I Don't Want To Set The World On Fire," "Strictly Instrumental," "When The Lights Go On All Over The World," "Ask Anyone Who Knows," "Oh What It Seemed To Be," "Rumors Are Flying" and many, many others).

We then immediately began work on a song for Mr. Townsend" — Solly then chimed in, saying, "This particular tune didn't come to us over night. We wrote several others first, but Benny and I wanted to be sure we would give Ed the right tune.

Next, Ed chimed in with this to say, "And the right tune it was; for as soon as Benny and Solly presented it to me I knew at once I was going to record it."

It was just a matter of a couple of weeks ago when all of this planning came to be reality. Ed began his rehearsal procedure with Benny and Solly suggesting certain arrangement ideas. Soon after, when Ed thought he was ready, the arranger for the session was hired, and Capitol studios reserved session time. Mr. Townsend stepped into the studio, as did the members of the orchestra, and the conductor, ready to set the tempo with a swing of his baton. Then recording activity began and a hit was born.

Our congratulations go out to the star Ed Townsend and to a couple of great guys and song writers, Benny Benjamin and Solly Marcus.

Editors note: By the way, for those of you fans who intend to go out and buy "Getting By Without You" now, a song called "Richer Than I," which has been recorded by several other artists, is the coupling piece of the new and great Ed Townsend recording.

An' a girl that wears a smile
Don't stop to check your road map,
Philadelphia's 'bout a mile;

Just pull up to the sidewalk,
Philadelphia's at your feet.
I tell you now my biggest moment

I don't want nobody else but you
No one treats me the way you do
I just want you to hold my hand
And tell me I'm your lover man
And I don't want nobody else but you

You captured my heart and I love it

DON'T PITY ME

LOU STALLMAN SID JACOBSON
Don't don't pity me.

Pity my arms' for losing you
Pity my dreams that won't come true
But don't, don't, don't pity me.
Pity my heart that's gonna break
Pity my kiss that you won't take
But don't, don't, don't pity me.
Pity from others I have plenty of
But darling from you, I want love
Pity the love I'll throw away
Till you return to me someday
But don't, don't, don't pity me.

NOW-A-DAYS

EARL SHUMAN MORT GARSON
I fell for a magician at the tender age of six
Yes! I was only six and from his bag of tricks
He'd pull the cutest bunnies
And then just to make me laugh say, "abracadabra"
And saw me right in half! But

Now, now, now-a-days I'm so in love with you
So much in love with you
Yes now, now now-a-days
I'm yours until forever more.

I loved a turkish tight rope walker at the age of eight
Yes! I was only eight but I could hardly wait
To watch him keep his balance
With his twenty foot mustache he'd slip I'd flip Each time the sym-bal crashed! But

I loved a circus fire eater at the age of ten Yes! I was only ten and I remember when He told me that someday
True love would make my heart ignite I waited and waited
And darling he was right!

LONESOME TOWN

B. NIGHT
There's a place where lovers go
To cry their troubles away
And they call it lonesome town
Where the broken hearts stay
You can buy a dream or two
To last you all through the years
And the only price you pay
Is a heart full of tears.
Going down to lonesome town
Where the broken hearts stay
Going down to lonesome town
To cry my troubles away
The streets are filled with regret.
In the town of broken dreams

Maybe down in lonesome town
I can learn to forget
Maybe down in lonesome town

RICHER THAN I

ADOLPH MORRIS LAWRENCE SMITH
Richer than I, no one can be,
I have the fields, I have the sea,
I have the stars, that glow in the sky,
No one can be, richer than I.
I have the flow'rs that bloom in the lane,
I have the sunshine, I have the rain,
I have someone to love, I place none above,
And I'll love her till the day I die,
So you see none can be much richer than I.

Hey, love eyes! I mean you,

You've been eyeing me since you walked in.
Your glances speed my heart and heat my skin.
Yeah love syees!
You're all there, there in them levis.
Your hot gaze betrays that you're no Saint,
But gal I like you for the Saint, you ain't.
You don't need love talk to work a fella up.
Your eyes do it for you
And they're making me adore you.
Love eyes, I want you,

DICK CLARK

PHENOMENON OF STAGE SCREEN RECORDS

ABC-TV AMERICAN BANDSTAND

Television has played its part in bringing to the fore one of the most outstanding show-biz personalities to come on the scene in perhaps the last fifty years. The name "Dick Clark" stands above all others in the popularity polls — and the unusual thing is the fact that both the teenager and adult populaces look to and love congenial "American Bandstand" host Dick Clark. It isn't often that the adults go along with the teenage "crushes" — especially in the entertainment business — and it's been this nation-wide acceptance that has catapulted Mr. Clark into his star-studded position as "king of the music industry." This spurt to fame and national acceptance by the "kids" as well as the adults is a glowing tribute to the tremendous personality, friendliness and down-to-earth, honest-to-goodness love of life which make up Dick Clark. Dick is one of the very few people in today's entertainment picture that practices the "Golden Rule," and that is why he is so respected.

One of the more recent accomplishments of Dick Clark has been the issuance of his LP on the ABC Paramount label. This first-rate album has been received with tremendous enthusiasm by the record-buying public and promises to be one of the best sellers of the new year. Some of the selections featured in the album are "Willie And The Hand Jive," "Sentimental Journey," "Short Fat Fanny," "Miss You" and "Love Is Strange." All in all, a total of 12 great numbers are brilliantly arranged in this album, which is a must for your record collection.

With the meteoric rise of Dick Clark as a TV personality, thousands of teenagers have written HIT PARADER Magazine for a picture of their idol. We are happy to announce that we now have available beautiful autographed photos of Dick at no cost to our readers. Simply cut out the coupon below and together with a self-addressed stamped envelope, mail it to HIT PARADER Magazine, Derby, Conn. A photo will be mailed out to you immediately. Please remember that a HIT PARADER coupon and a self-addressed, stamped envelope must be included in order to receive your picture.

His personality shines through whether he's introducing a star or a commercial.

Please send me an autographed picture of Dick Clark. Enclosed is my self-addressed stamped envelope.

DICK CLARK

20,000,000
Teenagers
Look
To Him
As Their Idol

Many times over Dick will take time out to sit and talk awhile with the regulars or the guest teenagers on the very popular ABC-TV program American Bandstand.

Dick gets ready to spin a disc and the studio audience lines up for a Cha Cha contest. Mountains of fun for all is the motto of the really, really "Big Show."

The other day a reporter, looking for an angle, asked ABC-TV star Dick Clark to give him a glossary of teen-age slang.

"You know the kind of thing I mean," the reporter said, "like 'dig' and 'crazy' and 'the most' and 'alligator' and all that."

Clark wouldn't do it.

The reason he wouldn't provides an interesting insight, both into the real (as distinguished from popularly portrayed) teen-ager, and into Clark himself, newest of teen-age idols.

"I know the words you mean," Clark told the reporter, "and I could do your glossary. But the kids don't talk that way. Except for a very few of them, teen-agers talk exactly the way you and I do. They use a little worse grammar — and they know better."

Clark is one of the teen-ager's leading adult fans, and the youngsters have reciprocated by catapulting him into sudden stardom with two television shows. His afternoon pop hop "American Bandstand" on ABC-TV has, for a year and a half, racked up unheard-of ratings and knocked the competition right out of the box. On Feb. 15, 1958 ABC-TV started him in a new Saturday night music show, 7:30 to 8:00 p.m., EST.

As the glossary story indicates, Clark, who sees up to 300,000 teen-agers a year, refuses to cash in on the youngsters by holding them up to view as some sort of weird, non-human phenomena; for him teen-agers are mostly people,

What more fun can there be than to have the best music to dance to. This picture proves (in black and white) that America has the dancingest teenagers without doubt.

Intrigued by the many star personalities that appear on the daily telecasts, the teenagers sit and view the proceedings so ably handled by emcee Dick Clark.

The H. P. Cameraman catches Dick doing up some fancy dance steps when he guested on the Arthur Murray Dance Party. Dick won the contest, by the way.

between childhood and adulthood. But they do differ from earlier generations, he's found.

"They may be a little more mature than any preceding generation at that age," he says. "They certainly know what's what; they're — well, more hip."

Hip, incidentally, means hep, but only people who aren't hip say hep.

Clark, an elderly fellow going on 29, also finds the youngsters have a far more diversified musical taste than they did in what he calls his day.

"You remember, we'd only like one thing when we were kids," he says. "We'd like swing, and Miller, or progressive jazz, and Kenton, or boogie, and the Count. Never more than one or two different forms, and not very different at that.

"Today the kids like everything. Play them anything from a mellow, heart-throbbly 'April Love' to a cloud miner like 'Short Shorts'; all the kids will like it, dance to it and make it a hit."

Clark doubts that there will be much change in the teen-agers' taste in the next couple of years; specifically — hold on to your ear plugs, mother — he foresees a still more extreme kind of rock 'n' roll.

"There's nothing in the talk of decline in rock 'n' roll," says the man who should know. "The big r 'n' r songs are getting even more exciting. With so many big-beat songs at the top of the hit list, it's silly to talk about an early end for The Rock."

Pat Boone is another of the nation's favorites who has appeared on the American Bandstand. Dick Clark kicked off several of Pat's hit record releases on the Dot label.

Tony Marmarella (C) and Ed Yates (R) discuss a giant contest to be run on the American Bandstand. Dick Clark, emcee, listens attentively before he voices an opinion.

Dick Clark: His Life Away From Show Business

Spinning records is as much a hobby as it is a job for Dick Clark, the d.j. star of "American Bandstand" on WFIL-TV (ABC-TV) each weekday afternoon. The music Dick plays on his show reflects the selections of a young man who has been a "pop" music collector all his life, and who spends his "leisure" hours at home 'doin' what comes naturally," playing records for his own enjoyment.

Dick's personal taste in music, both on the show and off, seems to be one that meets with the enthusiastic approval of millions throughout the country; for his show is one of the hottest properties in television history.

As master of ceremonies of the "American Bandstand," Clark has demonstrated the many talents that have made him one of the most engaging personalities in local broadcasting. His warmth and deft handling of the m.c. chores are the results of the early years spent perfecting the ad-lib technique in his previous station assignments.

Clark has been a broadcaster practically from the cradle. Born in Mount Vernon, New York, he went to College at Syracuse University and started his broadcasting while still in school. He began his radio work as summer relief man on WRUN, Utica-Rome, N.Y. for three years. While classes were in session, Dick filled in as announcer at WOLF, Syracuse. He received a well-rounded broadcasting education at these stations, since he handled all types of programs from early morning record shows to late evening news headlines.

Dick is married to the former Barbara Mallery, and they live in Drexel Hill, Pa. They collect recordings — are Hi Fi addicts — and Dick's favorite pastimes are swimming and taking long hikes in the country with his wife and dog.

Dick and Barbara Clark pause for a family portrait in their Drexel Hills, Pa., home. Dick, host of the ABC-TV "American Bandstand" and "Dick Clark Show," finds himself with fewer and fewer such leisure hours on hand, what with eight hours a week of network and five more of local shows. There's so much to be done — and Dick always does it well.

Under wife Barbara's tutelage, ABC-TV music man Dick Clark learns the intricacies of assembling a very small boy — namely son Dickie — for outdoor use. Dick, who originates his daily "American Bandstand" from Philadelphia and commutes to New York for the weekly "Dick Clark Show," lives in the Philadelphia suburb of Drexel Hills, Pa.

Even away from the studio Dick busies himself with auditioning some of the new records that come in. His desk at home appears almost as cluttered with work as his desk at the WFIL studios. He sincerely believes in giving his all to his work, but at the same time a more devoted family man cannot be found.

A LOVER'S QUESTION

BROOK BENTON JIMMIE WILLIAMS
Does she love me with all her heart
Should I worry when we're apart
A lover's question I'd like to know
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Does she need me as she pretends
Is this a game will I win
A lover's question I'd like to know
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
I'd like to know when she's not with me

I'd like to know when we're kissing
Does she feel just what I feel
And how am I to know it's really real
Oh, tell me where the answer lies
In her kiss or in her eyes?

A lover's question I'd like to know
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

One night with you is what I'm praying for.

The things that we two could plan
Would make my dreams come true.
Just call my name and I'll be right by your side.

I want your sweet helping hand;
My love's too strong to hide.
Always lived a very quiet life.
I ain't never did no wrong.
Now I know that life without you
Has been too lonely too long.
One night with you is what I'm now praying for.

This is the moment I've waited for.

Here and now, dear, all my love I

WHEN I SPEAK YOUR NAME

CHARLES TOBIAS ARTHUR ALTMAN

When I speak your name
Does it mean I love you?
It does, because your name and love are the same.
When I speak your name,
Does it mean I need you?
I do, I need you more than fortune or fame.
May I make this confession,
When we're near or apart;
Only in your possession,
Have I given my heart.
Keep that heart aflame,
Always love me, darling,
You know that you have mine, each time I speak your name.

How often can a great artist be kept out of the spotlight of stars because of the wrong material? Very often! But such was not the case with Jimmie Rodgers, who has sung his way into the spotlight to stay with hit after hit. Although, to be a singer you must have a voice, you must also have the right material to sing. Along with Jimmie's splendid voice, the key to his success has been his material — the right material. Only last year he hit the public with "Honeycomb," which made world history. Since then, history has repeated itself with hits such as "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine," "Secretly," "Are You Really Mine?" and now "Bim-bombey."

JIMMIE RODGERS

It was just about the time Roulette Records was getting under way and carpenters, electricians and movers were hard at work putting the company's offices into shape for business, that Jimmie walked into the midst of the confusion seeking an audition. Both Hugo Peretti and Luigi Creatore, Co-Artist and Repertoire chiefs for Roulette, were also busily engaged in mapping out recording plans for the embryonic firm. Jimmie, shy and hesitant in manner proclaimed, "I sing." Having heard this line before, Hugo and Luigi retorted, "O.K., sing." Jimmie then unpacked his beat up guitar and proceeded to do two numbers. Hugo and Luigi were very impressed and young Jimmie was on his way to fulfilling another unique show-business success story.

Jimmie has now "got it made," as the familiar phrase goes. He has picked the "right" material and acquired the key to open the door to a bright and long lasting future.

A "Hit" A "Miss" &

"Four Knights"

Miss Jody Cameron

THE FOUR KNIGHTS

(Coral Recording Stars)

When knights are mentioned, one automatically thinks of days of old, but in this case we look to the extreme opposite, as we tend to talk about something modern in every sense of the word. And what's more, details to be presented in this story by no means will add up to a fairy tale. It is fact, proof of which can be discovered by tuning in any of our country's top deejay shows.

Now, before we get too involved, let us get down to business, turning to our title, "A Hit A Miss And Four Knights." — The "hit" is a tune called "Oh Falling Star," the "miss" is the lovely, versatile Miss Jody Cameron, and, of course, the Four Knights are the Coral recording stars who are responsible for the fine sound on the hit which was composed by the "miss."

The "miss," Miss Jody Cameron, has been working for one of New York's most popular stations for a year and a half — WMGM. She has the job of record librarian there, where she is right "in" the music business. Song-writing has been her first love; for she comes from a musical and show business family. Upon becoming record librarian at WMGM, in New York, Jody's realization of a childhood dream came true.

This ambitious girl has done just about everything to really learn the music business. She made it a practice to get jobs that would prepare her for the job that she now holds. She first went to work for a theatrical booking agency in order to learn about the performer's side of the business. Then, being even more conscientious, she went to work for a music publisher, selecting and promoting songs. After that, she got a job at a major recording company in the publicity department, which brought about the opportunity to learn all about the workings of a record company.

While on vacation in Miami, Jody took a job singing and interviewing on TV, but soon returned to New York to do club dates and TV work. Yet she still was not satisfied, so she decided to become a disc jockey and went to radio school at night. There she learned how to operate a radio station (she now holds a second class engineer's license) and learned the deejay techniques. She was soon offered the job at WMGM and accepted, because New York is the center of the "pop" music world.

"Oh Falling Star" is Jody's first record, and she hopes to have many more releases. With the sound this one is making, that "hope" is bound to become a reality. Jody has written over 90 songs (words and music), an operetta and a musical comedy, which she hopes will appear on Broadway some day.

Although The Knights' "Oh Falling Star" by Jody has begun to put them in the national spotlight once again, they are by no means new-comers. Arthur Godfrey gave them their first major break and featured the group for several weeks, but Jody has given them a "hit." It seems incredible that a girl of 27 could be the only female music programmer and librarian in New York, be a writer of songs (and hit ones at that), hold a deejay license etc., etc. There is only one word for this gal — fabulous!

IT'S ONLY MAKE BELIEVE

CONWAY TWITTY JACK NANCE

People see us everywhere
They think you really care
But myself I can't deceive
I know it's only make believe

My one and only prayer is that someday you'll care

My hopes my dreams come true

My one and only you

No one will ever know how much I love you so

My only prayer will be someday you'll care for me

But it's only make believe

My hopes my dreams come true

My life I'd give for you

My heart, a wedding ring

My all my everything

My heart I can't control you rule my very soul

My plans my hopes my schemes

You are my every dream

NO ONE EVER TELLS YOU

CARROL COATES HUB ATWOOD

No one ever tells you what it's like to love and lose.

How it feels to waken and have breakfast with the blues.

How to go on living how to face another day.

No one ever tells you the way.

No one ever tells you how it feels to walk alone.

List'ning for those footsteps thru' the echo of your own.

Suddenly it hits you all those dreams weren't worth a dime,

But no one ever tells you in time.

Long before the icy winds of winter Autumn tells the swallows "time to fly."

Why did she pretend 'til the bitter end

'Til it broke my heart to say "goodbye"

No one ever warns you when your heart begins to sing

Someone tells you later "all is fair in love and war"

But no one ever tells you before.

THE ONE ROSE

(That's Left In My Heart)

DEL LYON LANI MCINTIRE

You're as sweet as the red rose in June, dear,

I love you, adore you, I do

Each night thru Loveland we'd wander, sweetheart

Telling love stories anew

Out of a blue sky a dark cloud came rolling

Breaking my heart in two

Don't leave me alone, I love only you,

You're the one rose that's left in my heart.

RICHARD RODGERS

I'm a girl, and by me that's only great!

I am proud that my silhouette is curvy,
That I walk with a sweet and girlish gait

With my hips kind of swivelly and swervy.

I adore being dressed in something frilly

When my date comes to get me at my place.

Out I go with my Joe or John or Billy,

Like a filly who is ready for the race!

When I have a brand new hair do

With my eyelashes all in curl,

I float as the clouds on air do,

I enjoy being a girl!

When men say I'm cute and funny

And my teeth aren't teeth but pearl,

I just lap it up like honey

I enjoy being a girl!

I flip when a fellow sends me flowers,

I drool over dresses made of lace,

I talk on the telephone for hours

With a pound and a half of cream upon my face!

I'm strictly a female female

And my future I hope will be

In the home of a brave and free male

Who'll enjoy being a guy having a girl like me.

B. GORDY, JR. TYRAN CARLO

My heart is crying crying

Lonely teardrops

My pillow never dries 'em

Lonely teardrops

Come home, come home oh come home

Just say you will say you will and you will

Yes, yes, my heart is crying

Lonely teardrops

Come home come home oh come home

Lonely teardrops

Just say you will say you will you will

Just give me another chance for our romance

Come on and tell me that one day you'll return

'Cause every day that you've been gone away

You'll know my heart does nothing but burn—crying

Lonely teardrops

My pillow never dries 'em

Lonely teardrops

Come home come home oh come home

Just say you will say you will say you will hey hey

Say it right now baby

Come on come on say it that you will Say it right now baby yeah come on

PAUL ANKA

"The Teen Commandments"

Announcement of an unusual record release came from ABC Paramount a few weeks ago when Sam Clarke, president of the diskery, announced the release of "The Teen Commandments," a suggested ten-point guide for teenage conduct. This recording is made by three of ABC Paramounts top recording artists — Paul Anka, George Hamilton IV and Johnny Nash.

The story of "The Teen Commandments" began at Westinghouse Radio Station KDKA in Pittsburgh, when Art Pallan, station deejay, read them on his show. Soon after, a tremendous avalanche of mail resulted, indicating that in this era of Rock 'n' Roll, there does exist a great need for guidance and understanding of the teenager. Mr. Pallan, recognizing this great potential need for public service, sent a copy of the "Commandments" to Norm Prescott of Westinghouse Radio Station WBZ in Boston. The response of his reading was even more impressive — over 19,000 letters from priests, preachers, high school principals, lawyers etc. But the most rewarding correspondence came from thousands of teenagers themselves, giving their hearty approval to the inspirational list of rules for self-conduct. Here, they felt, was a code to live by — something tangible to bridge the gap between the difference in thinking of the teenager and the adult — something that would prove to their elders that today's teenager is not without a definite moral responsibility.

And now, with the release of the record and the plays it has been getting, also with the number of sales that have resulted, it would surely go to prove that our teenagers want a standard set of rules by which to live closer with their fellow citizens. Thanks to such greats as Paul Anka, George Hamilton IV and Johnny Nash, this set of rules has become a reality.

LOVE OF MY LIFE

F. BRYANT B. BRYANT
Love of my life, come close to me
Say you will always be true
Our love must be sweet destiny
Love of my life I love you

No other love could thrill me so completely
No other lips could satisfy me,
Baby baby don't deny me
My hungry arms long for your charms
Mmmm, hmm, love of my life I love you.

LARRY KOLBER LARRY MARTIN
Forget the fellows that you knew before
You ain't a gonna see them any more Forget the trip that you were gonna take Forget it all but for goodness sake.

But forget me not,
Forget me not,
You're all I got
Forget me not

Forget the dating ev'ry Friday night
I ain't a gonna let you out of sight
I'm going out and buy a wedding ring
So you can start forgetting ev'ry thing.

Forget the fellows at the candy store
Cause you ain't gonna see them any more Forget the talkin' on the telephone
Tell your Ma to tell them you're not home.
Forget the way you roll them big blue eyes
At all those big and handsome football guys
Forget the meeting all the gang at three
From now on you're walking home with me.

BOB HAYMES
When I met you in the summer on the beach so long ago
I never did think we'd share the winter snow
When the spring has warmed the valley
And the mountains green again
When the river sings of summer
Will we be together then?
As we dream before the fire
You can hear the wind outside
So cuddle up close and stay here by my side
And if all my pray'rs are answered
You will marry me and then
We will always be together
When the summer comes again!

SAVE MY SOUL

JACK SCOTT
Going down to the River Jordan
Going to ask to save my soul
Going down to the River Jordan
Going to ask to save my soul
Then there I'm going to freeze
Going down to the river to save my soul, oh
Well Moses opened up the waters
And he let the people through
Well now, Moses opened up the waters
And he let the people through
Was a windy day and a barrel brown
And the waters came tumbling down
Down, down to the river to save my soul

Well, save my soul, save my soul
Save my soul, save my soul
Going down to the river to save my soul

Now listen Brother Henry
Listen here to me
Heard about your Jezebel
And come come come to me
We'll go down to the river
We'll get down on your knees
And ask the Lord to save our souls
Save us here to freeze

Well, save my soul, save my soul
Save my soul, save my soul
Going down to the river to save my soul.

WILLINGLY (Melodie Perdue)

CARL SIGMAN HUBERT GIRAUD
Willingly I'm offering my heart and soul to you Willingly I'll go through fire if you asked me to Hopefully I hope to be the one your heart adores
Thrillingly give your lips to me and I'll willingly be yours
Till eternity yes, I'll willingly be yours.

Melodie des jours heureux tu es restee la bas
Sous les toits d'un vieux faubourg ou les amours sont rois.
Un piano venait la nuit dans notre nid la haut
Nous bercer jusqu'au petit jour d'une melodie d'amour.
Tu as disparu toi, ma melodie perdue.

Melodie des jours heureux tu es si loin, si loin.
Seule amie d'un reve enfui au paradis perdu
Tu n'es plus tu n'es plus rien qu'un vieux refrain connu
Qui s'ennuie et traîne les rues je ne t'entends plus d'amour.
Tu as disparu toi, ma melodie perdue.

SCOTT GARRETT'S YEAR

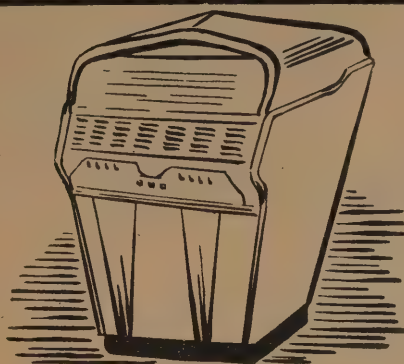

Scott Garrett the new recording sensation of Laurie Records, is destined to be one of the greatest star personalities of the new year. His recording of "A House Of Love" has established his great potential in the popular singing sweepstakes.

Scott is a young and handsome lad who was left on the steps of a church in Pittsburgh when he was six months of age. A kindly minister took him in and announced to his congregation of his finding. Scott immediately was adopted by a wonderful married couple and was brought up with love and affection by his foster parents who saw to it that he was well-educated in both formal and religious training. For four years he attended the Mount Vernon Academy which is a high school devoted to the training of young men preparing for the ministry. His spare time at the Academy, which is located in Ohio, was spent in singing and conducting at Evangelist meetings in the area.

Following this, Scott attended the Washington Missionary College in Washington, D.C. At the end of the year, he was assigned to a church in Richmond, Va. as associate pastor. Two years later, Scott went on tour with the Evangelist C.C. Duffield, doing solo singing and helping conduct services. At the age of 22, he resigned from the ministry to enter the pop singing field.

Scott returned to Washington where he looked for opportunities to sing. None were forthcoming at the time so he took various jobs in the nation's Capitol. One day while crossing a street he was hit by a taxi. Luckily the injuries weren't serious. In the taxi was a young girl singing trio that was appearing at the Wardman Park Hotel, now the Sheraton Park. Scott told the girls of his singing aspirations and they arranged an audition for him with Roger Mendez, the orchestra leader at the Wardman Park. Scott passed the audition and sang with the band for six months. He then came to the attention of Milton Q. Ford, a popular radio and television personality in Washington, and Ford used him on his local television show on Station WMAL. Scott also made many radio appearances.

About a year ago, Scott realized that if he was going to get anywhere in the singing business he would have to come to New York. He landed in the big city and soon met Elise Britton, a composer and singer with the Ray Charles Chorus who are featured with Perry Como on all his shows, and Elise coached and encouraged him in his singing — and since that time Scott has earned himself a star position as a recording artist and in-person attraction. 1959 will be Scott Garrett's year, particularly after everyone gets to hear his recording of "A House Of Love."

A NEW

IN

DOMINIC FRONTIERE

In this issue of HIT PARADER we have with us a very versatile young man named Dominic Frontiere. Versatile because of his ability to be a composer, arranger and conductor, all rolled into one. He has adapted and arranged music for many, many motion pictures, including "Thunder In The Sun," "A Certain Smile," "The Young Lions" and more, too numerous to mention.

For television he has either adapted, arranged, conducted or composed for the Ed Sullivan Show, Steve Allen's Show, the Dean Martin Club Oasis and the Jack Benny Show. Dominic also composed and arranged 35 minutes of the Max Liebman NBC Spectacular "Good Times," starring The Ritz Bros. Before this, came the arrangement and conducting of bi-weekly NBC network radio and television programs for Horace Heidt.

Dominic has also played at such famed hotels as the Mapes in Reno; the Flamingo, Las Vegas; the Yale Symphony — we could go on, but to do so would be a little monotonous. If you have heard such records as "Twelve Exotic Nights," "Les Brown Album," "Johnny Mercer Songbook" and "Dixieland" (with Frank DeVol), you have heard part of or all of, Dom's work.

If you have seen "Packaged In Paris," then you have seen and heard some of Dom's work. He has also done arrangements for Chiquita and Johnson, Erin O'Brien, Howard Keel and other great vocal artists.

As you can tell by now, Dominic is a tremendously talented musician, plus a very, very versatile one. He is in the process of releasing an album he has just made. This album is composed, arranged and conducted by him. In it he uses an orchestra of fifty-six men! Fifty-six men — can you imagine the sounds that can be created by such an orchestra? This album is on the Columbia label and was released on January 1. The title of the album (a very important factor which we almost forgot) is "Pagan Festival." Already it sounds good to us — and it sounds like a very worthwhile investment for true music lovers. All you hi fi fans should latch onto "Pagan Festival."

We should not forget to mention the fact that Dom is from New Haven, Connecticut, where a lot of up and coming stars are now, and have been coming from. He attended Hillhouse High School there and while still in school won the Horace Heidt talent show. This is how he came about arranging and conducting the bi-weekly NBC network radio and television program.

Lots of luck from HIT PARADER Magazine to Dominic Frontiere for the wonderful success he has achieved. He set his goal — and a big one it was — but he has definitely "made it." All you HIT PARADER fans will be seeing and hearing from Dominic very soon through his album and scheduled TV appearances. From these you will see and hear for yourself the God-given talent that this young man has.

COME PRIMA

M. PÄNZERI BUCK RAM S. TACCANI
V. DI PAOLA

La notte, come allora, magica scende,
La luna splende, e tu sei qui.
Mi sento un po' confuso, non so capire
E ti so dire solo così.

For the first time, for the first time,
I'm in love

For the first time, for the first time,
I found happiness,

From the moment I saw you I was enraptured

Ev'ry moment after that I live in the clouds.

For the first time, yes, the first time,
I can thrill

For the first time I love you and always will.

You're the first one, yes, the first one
You're my one and only one

For the first time,

For the first time,

I'm in love.

Come prima piu' di prima t'amero'.

Per la vita la mia vita ti daro'.

Sembra un sogno rivederti, accarezzarti,
Le tue manifra le mani stringere ancor.

Il mio mondo, tutto il mondo sei per
me,

A nessuno voglio bene come a te.

Ogni giorno ogni istante dolcemente
ti diro'.

Come prima piu' di prima t'amero'.

Come prima, piu di prima t'amero'.

Per la vita la mia vita ti daro'.

I GOT STUNG

AARON SCHROEDER DAVE HILL

Holy smoke, aland sakes alive.

I never thought this could happen to me.

Mmm, yeah! Mmm, yeah!

I got stung by a sweet honey bee,

Oh, what a feeling come over me.

It started in my eyes, crept up to my head,

Flew to my heart till I was stung dead.

I'm done, uh-huh, I got stung!

Mmm, yeah! Mmm, yeah!

She had all that I wanted and more,

And I've seen honey bees before.

She started buzzin' in my ear, buzzin'
in my brain,

Got stung all over, but I feel no pain.

I'm done, uh-huh, I got stung!

Now don't think I'm complainin'

I'm mighty pleased we met

'Cause you gimme one little peck on the back o' my neck,

And I break out in a cold cold sweat.

Well, if I live to a hundred and two,

I won't let nobody sting me but you.

Be buzzin' 'round your hive ev'ry day at five

And I'm never gonna leave one I arrive,

'Cause I'm done, uh-huh, I got stung!

BIG BOPPER'S WEDDING

J. P. RICHARDSON

And the man keeps saying,
Do you take this woman to be your awful wedded wife?
Then I started thinking about no more winking
At the pretty little gals a bopping bye
No more dancing and new romancing
Lord, it makes me want to sit down and cry
No pool shootin' and a rootin' and a tootin'
With the boys if I take you for my wife
I can't go no place I got to look at your face
For the rest of my doggone life, this is it!

Now, honey, what am I doing here in the first place
You know I don't go for this marriage bit,
I was only kidding (laugh).
And there's your daddy sitting over there
With a shotgun laying across his lap.
And a big smile on his ugly face,
And the man keeps saying,
Are you gonna take this woman or ain'tcha?

Honey, what's this jazz about love, honor and obey
That cat's talking to me (laugh)
And look at all these good looking brides maids standing around Hell-loo—baby and the man in charge keeps saying
Look here! do you take this woman or don'tcha?

And the man keeps saying, look here?
Do you take this woman or don'tcha?
And I say, pardner, I don't believe I do,
Let me out of here.

TOM DOOLEY

DAVE GUARD

Throughout history there have been many songs
Written about the eternal triangle
This next one tells that story
Of a Mister Grayson, a beautiful woman
And a condemned man named Tom Dooley
When the sun rises tomorrow Tom Dooley must hang

Hang down your head Tom Dooley
Hang down your head and cry
Hang down your head Tom Dooley
Poor boy your bound to die

I met her on the mountain
There I took her life
Met her on the mountain
Stabbed her with my knife
This time tomorrow reckon where I'll
be Hadt it been for Grayson I'd been in Tennessee
This time tomorrow reckon where I'll
be
Down in some lonesome valley
Hangin' from a white oak tree

THE ROOTS OF HEAVEN

NED WASHINGTON HENRI PATTERSON
It feels like the first day of spring
At times, I could cry, I could sing.
In the deep roots of heaven a seed was sown
And it grew like a brave hearted thing.

This love that was born of the seed
It fills ev'ry want, ev'ry need.
From the deep roots of heaven, it's ours alone,
This love that was born of the seed!

Frankly Speaking

It wasn't too long ago that we received a phone call from the manager of Frankie Sardo, and this is what he said. "Frankly speaking, this boy is going to become a star! I am not saying that just because I am his manager but the way he has been completely captivating audiences — he is going to make it to the top." It was at that time that HIT PARADER presented our first little spotlight on Frankie Sardo — and now "Frankly Speaking" we want to advise our readers that Frank is destined to become one of the foremost stars on the music scene, well on his way with his fast rising hit, "Fake Out" on the ABC Paramount label.

Twenty year old Frankie also wants to be an actor, but he can't help it if it's his singing voice that's launching him into stardom. Frank received his formal education in show business by acting, singing and dancing with his parents in Italian theatres in the U. S. after having made his musical debut at the tender age of five.

Upon graduating from P.S. 108 in New York City, he continued his education at Fork Union Academy in Virginia, where he not only studied, but sang, produced and acted in plays. Frank is certainly a promising young man in many fields. And not only does he appear to have "made it" on the record front, but he's also in the process of signing a screen contract with a leading movie studio for two starring dramatic roles to be filmed within the next eleven months. There are also several television appearances in the offing for him.

CHUCK BERRY

Only nine years old and sweet as she can be.

All dressed up like a downtown Christmas tree.

Dancin' and hummin' a rock roll melody.

She's the daughter of a well respected man,

Who taught her how to judge and understand.

Since she became a rock roll music fan.

Sweet little rock and roller,

Sweet little rock and roller,

Her daddy don't have to scold her,

Her partner can hardly hold her.

She never gets any older,

Sweet little rock and roller

Should have seen her eyes when the band began to play,

And the famous singers sang and bowed away.

When the star performed, she screamed and yelled "Hooray."

Ten thousand eyes were watching him leave the floor,

Five thousand tongues were screaming more and more.

About fifteen hundred waiting outside the door.

Sweet little rock and roller,

Sweet little rock and roller,

Sweet little rock and roller

Sweet little rock and roller

Sweet little rock and roller,

Sweet little rock and roller

I'LL SAIL MY SHIP ALONE

LOIS MANN

HENRY BERNARD

HENRY THURSTON

We've been sweethearts for so long

But now you say we're thru,

The love we shared is now a memory.

I had built a ship of dreams

And planned them all for you,

And now I guess what is to be will be.

I'll sail my ship alone with all the dreams I own.

Drifting out across the ocean blue.

I'll sail my ship alone,

Tho' all the sails you've torn.

And when it starts to sink then I'll blame you.

I'm just like a ship at sea that's lost without a sail,

The dark clouds hide the sun from up above

And even with these broken dreams

my heart will never fail,

For deep inside there's only one true love.

Gave a message to the wind to take back home to you,

Hoping you would hear my S. O. S.

Maybe you would come back home,

My darling if you knew

How much my aching heart is in distress.
